

Wright In Kankakee is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the preservation for public access of the B. Harley Bradley House & Stable and the Warren R. Hickox House in Kankakee, Illinois. Designed in 1900, the Bradley and Hickox Houses represent Wright's earliest inceptions of Prairie Style design. They sit side by side on the banks of the Kankakee River in the Riverview Historic District. Both houses are listed on the National Register of Historic Places individually and as part of the Riverview Historic District. Your membership helps underwrite the expenses of acquiring and maintaining these architectural treasures.
